FRENCH DRAW NEAR PERONNE

British Launch Furious Drive and Take Town By Storm

CZAR AFTER HIS FOE

Muscovites Forces Passage of River at Various Points and Press Toward Kovel

London, July 11—British troops last night carried by storm the village of Contalmaison, northeast of Albert, about which violent fighting has raged since the opening of the allied offensive General Haig, in announcing the victory, reported that 189 German prisoners were taken.

"Further east we stormed several lines of enemy trenches in the Mametz wood," added General Haig. "The greater part of the wood is now in our possession."

Paris, July 11—Twenty two villages all fortified to the highest degree of which the Germans are capable, have been captured by the Anglo-French armies since the great offensive of the Somme began ten days ago.

Peronne, lying a bare mile across the Somme from the French advanced lines and the next important prize toward which the French are driving, lies almost within grasp of General Foch's army.

Dispatches from headquarters today showed that the village of Biaches one mile from Peronne, was captured by the French in the same dashing spirit that drove the enemy out of Dompierre, Hardecourt, and other strongly fortified points.

Dompierre, with its entire first line German positions, was taken in fifty minutes and Hardecourt in only thirty five. The Germans resisted more stubbornly at Biaches, but within less than two hours the village and all its strong defensive fortifications were in the hands of the French.

Paris, July 11—German troops launched a powerful attack against French works northeast of Verdun at 4 o'clock this morning after an intense bombardment extending from Fleury to the Chenois wood.

"East of the Chenois wood and in Fumin wood, the Germans occupied our advanced trenches, but were later thrown out by counter attacks," the war office stated today. "Everywhere else the attack was checked by curtain fire."

The war office admitted that German troops entered 200 yards of French trenches in Lorraine east of Reillon.

Petrograd, July 11—The Russian forces advancing in Volhynia toward Kovel are crossing the river Stokhod at various points, closely pressing the Teutonic forces opposing them, says the War Office statement.

The passage of the river is being accomplished under serious difficulties. The official communication says that the crossings of the river have, in most cases, been destroyed by the opposing armies.

Berlin, July 11—The Germans have checked the Russian forces which were advancing in Volhynia, in the direction of Kovel, the War Office announces. The Russian troops moving toward the Stokhod line were everywhere repulsed. The announcement follows:

"On the northern section of the front, apart from fruitless Russian attacks in the region of Skobowa, east of Gorodische, nothing of importance has occurred.

"Army group of General von Linsingen; The enemy advancing toward the Stokhod line was repulsed everywhere. His attacks west and southwest of Lutsk were unsuccessful. German aeroplane squadrons made a successful attack on enemy shellers east of the Stokhod.

"Army group of General von Bothmer: There was activity on the part of our patrols, which engaged in successful encounters in advanced positions.

"On the Balkan front our advanced posts repulsed by artillery fire enemy detachments south of Lake Doiran."

Paris, July 11—Artillery activity along the Macedonian front is reported in a Havas dispatch yesterday from Saloniki. An artillery duel occurred Sunday along the French line in the region of Kilindir.

Frech aeroplanes have raided Monastir and have thrown bombs on the military depots and camps at Petrich and on Fort Rupel.

Constantinople, July 11—Official announcement was made here yesterday that the Russian forces, which recently exacuated Kermanshah, Persia, had been overtaken by Turks and put to flight after a battle of seven hours. The Russian offensive on the Tchoruk sector of the Caucasus front undertaken to arrest the Turkish advance has collapsed.

AN INFURIATED WOMAN

Drunken Negress Causes Considerable Excitement in Southwestern Section of the City

Early last night a colored woman, said to be native of the West Indies, caused considerable commotion in the southwestern section of the city, she being drunk and disorderly. Officer Miller appeared upon the scene and placed her under arrest. She resisted the officer with the greatest ferocity, and he was compelled to summon two other men, one a railroad policeman, to aid him in bringing the infuriated woman to the station house. During the scuffle the prisoner stretched herself out on the pavement and resisted all attempts to place her upon her feet. In the scuffle she bit the railroad officer. She was after great difficulty brought to the station house. This morning when placed in the dock her answers to questions were snappish, but in the few words she uttered she let it be known where she obtained liquor. She was given 30 days in jail.

Samuel Lee, a native of southwest Virginia, was very drunk and disorderly about this time. He was found by Officer Reed and brought to the station house in an automobile. He had but little to say in extenuation of his conduct when arraigned this morning and was fined $5. He had no money and was sent to jail.

MAY NOT SEE SERVICE

Fears That Virginia Soldiers Wil Be Ordered to Demobilize

Richmond, July 11—Complaint has been made to the office of Adjutant General Sale it is learned that the trains carrying the Virginia militia to the Mexican border were overcrowded, that insanitary conditions existed and that some of the men probably did not receive sufficient rations. The complaint has not been made an official matter. As soon as it is officially filed, General Sale declared, it will be taken up with Governor Stuart and with the war department in Washington. Records in General Sale's office show that the adjutant general asked permission to handle the Virginia troops while en route. He was advised in reply that transportation would be attended to by the government. General Sale had planned to send the men in tourists cars. At the last minute the cars were transferred to Maryland and the Virginia militia assigned to day coaches in which they traveled as far as Atlanta.

Though the Blues and artillery are holding themselves ready for orders to entrain for Brownsville, there are persistent reports that neither command will see border service. Since the Virginia cavalry and artillery were not included in the general call for state militia, it is feared that demobilization will be ordered by the war department. Adjutant General Sale yesterday said he had heard nothing from Washington in reply to his request that the Blues and the First battalion of field artillery be sent to Texas to join the two regiments of Virginia infantry. He had received no advice suggestive or demobilization, he said, and had directed the two commands, now encamped at Camp Stuart, to remain under arms subject to orders.

DEUTSCHLAND PIONEER OF SUBS

Cost of Construction Cleared on First Voyage to U. S.

BRITISH LION'S AIMS

Cordon of Warships Will be on Watch at Virginia Capes to Intercept Vessel

Baltimore, Md., July 11—With $1,000,000 worth of highly concentrated dye still packed in her hold, the pioneer of submersible merchantmen, wonder ship of the great war, lies at her specially prepared wharf, strongly guarded by police. Her commander and his officers are frankly delighted and a little surprised at the hearty welcome they have received.

Carefully inspected by an agent of the Department of Justice, as well as by the surveyor of the port, the Deutschland has had no trouble in demonstrating her peaceful character. Her sole armament consists of four revolvers, the personal toys of officers. Collector Ryan's report to Washington places the Deutschland unquestionably in the merchantman class. On her maiden trip the Deutschland has more than paid for her construction. Her commander, Capt. Paul Koenig says so. The cost of building her was $500,000, which is easily wiped out by the profit to be derived from her $1,000,000 cargo.

The second vessel of the submarine fleet, the Bremen, may be looked for along the coast in about eight weeks, according to Capt. Koenig.

Washington, July 11—With all the might of gigantic naval strength, the British Lion is planning to wipe the German submarine, the Deutschland, from the seas.

Already, the British admiralty is forming a cordon of warships outside the three-mile limit, off the Virginia capes, and according to word which reached Washington last night a fleet of fast armed motor-boats will be rushed across the Atlantic, probably under convoy, to aid in the smashing of the intrepid submarine.

When Capt. Paul Koenig, commander of the Deutschland, turns the nose of his great undersea boat down the bay and heads for the open sea, he will be heading for a possible fight with every available naval weapon the entente can bring to bear.

New York, July 11—Three persons applied to the North German Lloyd Line yesterday for passage back to Germany on the submarine Deutschland, now at Baltimore.

Two of the would-be passengers offered $5,000 each for passage. The third offered $2,000.

VIRGINIA NEWS

He returned and attempted to break into the house, declaring he would kill Cowherd. Cowherd then shot him with a shotgun, the load tearing away half his face. The coroner's jury declared the homicide justifiable. Brookman is the second of two brothers to be shot to death in the last nine months.

BOYS AT BROWNSVILLE

Alexandrians Assigned First Class Camp Yesterday at Mexican Border

Payment of the troops in Camp Stuart will begin today, provided the rolls have been completed. Lieutenant Colonel Charles H. Consolvo, camp paymaster, will arrive in Richmond this morning from Norfolk and undertake the task of distributing the sum of $40,000 which was placed to his credit last Saturday by the War Department. The work of paying off the remainder of the disqualified guardsmen, some 108 in number, was completed yesterday evening.

Added to the amounts already received, the $40,000 which came in Saturday makes a total of $72,000 which has been received from the national government for the benefit of the State Guard, according to a statement made yesterday afternoon at the office of the Adjutant-General, Lieutenant- Colonel Consolvo, who is to begin payments today, was relieved from duty at Camp Stuart some time ago, except at such times as his services as paymaster might be required.

Four thousand more militia troops poured into the lower Rio Grande Valley yesterday evening. They were the Fourth Nebraska, the First Indiana, the First Virginia and a battery of Indiana artillery.

The Virginia troops detrained in Brownsville. They went at once to a first class encampment site set aside for them in North Brownsville.

The Virginia troops have been assigned to General Parker's already overgrown brigade. They bring his command up to 15,000 men, the second largest division on the border.

Philadelphia, July 11—Struck on the head by the board of a swing upon which a 6 year old boy was sitting, 2 year old Francis Flynn, of No. 432 East Thompson street, was instantly killed yesterday in the yard of the Alexander Adair Public School, at Palmer and Thompson streets. The boy was sent to St. Mary's Hospital, where it was found he had a fractured skull.

SAYS VILLA IS OUT FOR A RAID

Arrendondo Warns War Department of Bandit's Designs

LOWER CALIFORNIA

Negotiations in Progress Looking to its Acquirement by the United States

Washington, July 11—A second warning that Villa bandits are headed for the Big Bend district of Texas was given to the State Department yesterday by Eliseo Arredondo, the Mexican Ambassador designate. He told Acting Secretary Polk his Government had given him definite information that the bandits were moving northward toward Boquillas, Texas, and promised co-operation of Carranza forces.

Mr. Arredondo said he had no information regarding the number of bandits or their distance from the American line. The first warning of their approach was given last week. The information was sent to the War Department and forwarded to Major-General Funston.

Eliseo Arrendondo also received advices from his Government yesterday which, he said, closed the incident in which an American warship searched a Mexican sailing vessel at Guaymas. No protest will be made and his advices will be delivered to the State Department later.

Mr. Arredondo said he still was waiting for intsurctions from General Carranza on the course the latter will pursue in negotiating the border troubles. American officials favor a simple and short course of direct negotiation with the Ambassador.

A joint resolution to empower the President to negotiate by commission for purchase of "such portion of northern Mexico, including lower California as may be obtained" was introduced yesterday by Representative Caldwell, of New York. It invites Mexico to appoint a like commission. It was referred to the Foreign Affairs Committee, where similar resolutions have died.

BEGINNING OF THE END

Allies Optimistic As To Outcome of Present Struggle

Chicago, July 11—"The present drive marks the beginning of the end of the war. All the submarines that Germany can send under the seas will not affect the final issue. The allies have enough ammunition stacked up to keep up the present rate of firing without manufacturing another shell in the next six months."

In these words Baron Le Fevre, of Paris, fresh from the Europea trenches, familiar with the inner diplomatic circles of Paris and London, yesterday gave his views of the present status of affairs in the world, struggle.

"I do not say that the end of the war is yet in sight," he said, "as it is too early in the game to make such a statement. However, the present allied drive by England, France and Russia, does mark the beginning of what we believe will prove to be the end."

KILLS HIS CHILD, NOT HAWK

Father, Preparing to Shoot Bird of Prey, Has Sad Mishap

Williamsport, Pa., July 11—Hiram Carlton Mosteller, 8 was accidentally shot and killed by the premature explosion of a gun in the hands of his father, William H. Mosteller, of Eldred township, at their farm home yesterday. When a chicken hawk appeared over his chicken coop, Mosteller sent the boy into the house for his shotgun, and the lad soon brought it.

As Mosteller was preparing to shoot the hawk the gun prematurely discharged, the lad passed in front of the parent and the entire discharge entered his back, and the boy fell dead.

PLAYGROUND PROGRESS

Splendid Aid Being Given to Safeguard of City's Welfare by Parents and Teachers

According to reports from all citizens who interest themselves in the public welfare, splendid work is being done this summer by the play ground for the children of this city situated on the Washington School grounds on south Washington street and conducted under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers' Association, and indications point to greater progress than at any other time in its existence.

The committee in charge provides entertainment for all children of the city from 9 a. m. until 12 m. and from 3 p. m. to 7:30 p. m. every day, and request all to send the younger ones to this splendid place of recreation. Besides amusement, however, is also furnished instruction for the children in branches of domestic science, athletic sports. Here, by keeping the chilren constantly employed, by giving each child some part in some game, by keeping the small ones off the streets by bringing children of all classes together, by lifting them out of the commonplace and filling them with enthusiasm are methods by which the playground stands for the welfare of the city's younger generation.

Announcement of different classes has been made by those in charge, as follows:Dressmaking classes every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, from 9 until 11; children furnishing their own material or, if unable to do so, furnished by the playground; crocheting classes, Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 3 to 5; embroidery classes, including instruction in embroidering luncheon sets, towels, gowns, and children's dresses, etc., every Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday mornings, instruction beginning at 9 a. m. Tuesday and Saturday mornings is also given in long ball, volley ball, tether ball, and basket ball, classes being open to all children.

Older boys are taught how to play different athletic sports by the athletic instructor, William L. Schafer, jr. Other classes, as well as the general management of the play ground, are superintended by Miss Harriett Kail.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public by the committee in charge to visit the play ground and see the work being accomplished there.

NEGROES IN A ROW.

One Charges the Other With Robbing and Shooting Him.

Two negroes, giving their names as Jack Cooper and Randolph Chinn, were arrested this morning at the police station, where the latter had come to swear out a warrant against the former. Both are held awaiting the action of the Fairfax authorities.

According to the statement of Chinn, both had been gambling near Mount Vernon and Cooper had attempted to steal $10.70 belonging to him, whereupon he (Chinn) remonstrated in a forceful manner, and Cooper drew a pistol and shot at him, the bullet going through the latter's trouser's leg and grazing the thigh. At this Chinn admitted he had hurled a brick at Cooper's head and mix-up followed.

Cooper left the scene of the affray in a hurry and boarded a car for this city, Chinn following later in a vehicle, and reaching Alexandria managed to secure Cooper's arrest. Cooper exhibits a head tied up in bandages, severe cuts on his face, and one eye entirely closed the result, he alleges, of Chinn's assault. The latter, on the other hand, bears no evidence of injury, but persists in his statement that Cooper shot at and barely missed him.

LAW REQUIRES CLERKS TO REPORT

Attorney General Pollard Holds Them Equally Responsibe

THE EASLEY CHARGES

Opinion of Interest to All Clerks Throughout the Commonwealth of Virginia

Richmond, July 11—Holding that successive acts of the General Assembly alternately shifting the responsibility for reporting moneys in the possession of receivers or special commissioners, from the clerks of the courts to the examiners of records and vice versa, are not repugnant to each other, but cumulative, Attorney-General Pollard handed down an opinion yesterday in which he rules that the duty lies with equal force against both classes of officers.

A ruling on this point was requested by Executive Assistant Garnett, of the State Tax Board, before which body charges had been filed against Examiner James S. Easley, of the Sixth Circuit, alleging that, in failing to report about $100,000 of this class of property in Halifax County, he had been negligent in his duty as examiner. On this ground chiefly the State Tax Board was asked to remove him from office. On Saturday the board removed Mr. Easley without a statement, appointing in his place Tucker C. Watkins, Jr., of South Boston.

Pursuant to this ruling, Mr. Garnett has directed the preparation of a letter to be sent to every examiner of records and court clerk in the State, apprising them of their duties under the law with respect to the reporting of moneys, bonds and other evidences of debt in the hands of commissioners or receivers, subject to the control of the courts in order that there may be no question hereafter as to the responsibility for the performance of this duty. The Attorney-General's opinion is taken to mean that with respect to this class of property the duties of examiners and clerks are identical, and are intentionally made so for the purpose of maintaining a reciprocal check.

To the spotlight that has centered on the whole Easley-Watkins episode since the swift developments of the past few days, the Attorney-General's opinion contributes an illuminating of momentous interest. Nowhere in his statement is there a reference to the controversy. The opinion, nevertheless, deals directly with the issue, the determination of which appears to have been immediately responsible for the removal of a tax officer of eight years' standing and makes the clerks of the court equally responsible with the examiner for the dereliction charged.

If Mr. Pollard's conclusions are correct, it follows that Clerk Cran Craddock, of the Circuit Court of Halifax County, has failed in the discharge of his official duties as signally as has Examiner Easley in his his, and if the examiner's dereliction is punishable by removal from office so is the clerk's, Mr. Craddock, incidentally, took a prominent part in forwarding the campaign for Mr. Easley's removal.

The potato harvest in Germany will be delayed a fortnight, according to Berlin newspapers.As an evidence of the growing seriousness of the potato shortage the Berlin municipal authorities, in co-operation with the authorities of the suburbs, have decided that for the present holders of potato tickets will receive only two pounds of potatoes a week. As a compensation they will get an extra 400 grammes of flour. Holders of meat cards also must face a decrease in their allowance. The quantity is fixed at 225 grammes for the ensuing week as opposed to the former allowance of 250 grammes (about 8 3-4 ounces).

CATON APPEAL CASE

Corporation Court Will Take Up Issue on Friday

Friday morning has been set as the date for the trial of the appeal case of J. Reece Caton in the corporation court by Judge Louis C. Barley. Several weeks ago Mr. Caton was fined $5 in police court on the charge that he sold articles besides newspapers on Sunday, in violation of the Sunday "blue laws," made effective by the ouster law passed by the State legislature several months ago, the "blue law" prohibiting the sale of all "unnecessary" articles on the Sabbath, and thereby causing a spirited controversy throughout the cities of the state regarding the exact meaning of the word "necessary."

Immediately after the imposing of the fine upon him, Mr. Caton, through his counsel, Attorney Leo P. Harlow, noted an appeal to the higher court, and yesterday Judge Barley set the above date as the time for the trial. Commonwealth's Attorney Samuel G. Brent will represent the city in the appeal case.

Several other cases of alleged infringement of the Sunday laws are contingent upon Judge Barley's decision in the Caton case, a number of merchants accused of similar violations having been fined recently by Acting Police Justice Thompson with the provision that payments of the fines may be deferred until a decision is rendered in the appeal case, and if the higher tribunal sets aside Justice Thompson's decision against Caton, enforcement of later fines for like violations will be waived.

Detroit streets were lined with thousands of persons who shouted greetings and waved American flags at him wherever he appeared. DEATH OF GEO. W. HOUGH

Well- Known Alexandrian Expires Suddenly in Washington This Morning.

The many friends and acquaintances of George W. Hough, a former Alexandrian, who has resided in Washington in recent years, died suddenly at his boarding house in that city this morning. The deceased was about 66 years old. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. John P. Steiner, of this city.

Mr. Hough was one of a family of printers well-known to our older citizens. His father the late William S. Hough, and three sons— Louis, Charles and George—were employed at times on the Virginia Sentinel, published in this city in ante bellum days by the Smith Brothers in a building upon the site of the present Fleischmann Hotel. The quaternion also at times were employed in the composing room of the Gazette. At one time the father and sons were employed on the Southern Churchman, published in this city by the late Rev. George A. Smith and the late Rev. D. F. Sprigg. Upon reaching his majority the subject of this notice worked at his trade in New York city for several years, and subsequently removed to Washington, where he had since resided. He was at the time of his death a proof reader on the Star.Mr. Hough in recent years paid periodical visits to Alexandria, his old home. On such occasions he invariably came to the Gazette office, where he found but one of his contemporaries, with whom he conversed on things of the past with intense interest. The many friends and acquaintances of Mr. Hough in this city will regret to hear of his decease.

HELD FOR GRAND JURY

Negroes Forge Check Upon Which Money is Obtained From A Saloonkeeper

William Berkley and Edward Pinckey, both colored, were before the Police Court this morning charged with uttering forged checks. Berkley was prepresented by Attorney Robinson Moncure and Pinckney by Attorney Aylett B. Nicol. Berkley, according to the evidence, presented a check for $25 to Richard C. Burnett, and asked the latter to cash it. It bore the name of a lady. Burnett refused to advance the full amount of the check and gave the negro $10. He later became convinced that the check was a forgery. The police, upon learning of the matter arrested Pinckney as particeps criminis, it being alleged that he had acted as amanuensis for Berkley, who cannot read or write.

The lady whose name was signed to the two checks for $25 each appeared in court and stated that she had not signed them. Pinckney admitted that he filled out the checks for Berkley, but was unaware of the fact that he was implicating himself in crime.

After several questions had been propounded to the prisoners by their lawyers, both were ordered to be held for the action of the grand jury.

Evangelist Gibson Spoke on Prayer Last Night at the Gospel Tent

"All the First Day Texts of the New Testament" was subject which had been announced for Evangelist Gibson's discourse at the gospel tent meeting last night. Owing to the inclement weather, however, he deferred speaking on those subjects until tonight, in order to afford all who desire to do so an opportunity to attend. His subject last night was prayer, which he handled in an interesting, impressive and convincing manner.

CHARMING PASTORAL STORY

Tom Paine, in his coarse way of saying everything attempted to make sport of the Book of Ruth. It did not appeal to him, although it is generally admitted that it is a brief and beautiful story of oriental pastoral life. Paine endeavored to question the character of the Moabitish damsel, who was one of the progenitresses of the Saviours of Mankind. He tells, in his way, of her return to the land of her birth, which she was forced to leave by famine, as a young and enterprising widow.

A century ago Paine's "Age of Reason" was read by many, especially those who sympathized with the French revolution. It is seldom read now. There is, in fact, no argument in it worth refuting. But the Book of Ruth is as enjoyable to us as it was to the ancients.

A perusal of this brief story will be us all good, as it portrays guileless persons. There is one passage which might be read with profit in our day, when there is too often friction between employer and employee. It is as follows:

"And behold Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said unto the reapers, The Lord be with you. And they answered him, The Lord bless thee." The Christian Herald in speaking of this charming story says:

The book of Ruth is the greatest pastoral idyl in literature. It is founded on loving kindness, the loving kindness of the Moabitess revealed to her family, ad the loving kindness of Boaz, the wealthy Israelite, to Ruth his kinswoman. It also contains the germ of that great heartedness which is the center of the gospel of Christian love. It is a book that opens with tears and famine and ends with the sound of wedding bells.

The story turns upon the straightforwardness of Boaz, who showed kindness and manliness to Ruth, a member of a nation that was Israel's foe, and in that kindness founded a new house, the house of Jesse and David, the royal line that begat a greater than David. It was the first mingling of the blood of the Jew and Gentile, symbolic of the cosmopolitan width of the Christian religion. It was the sign that that religion was not to be founded upon wealth, or upon social caste, but upon the large, wholesome love of the human heart.

Boaz is immortal among Bible heroes for his kindness, his plain, everyday generosity, his sense of protection and care for the lonely, unprotected Moabitish girl, his dead kinsman's wife, who in her poverty gleaned in his harvest field after the reapers. Boaz gave order to his reapers that they should allow her to glean even among the sheaves of barley, and by his large-heartedness gained a wife, and, more than that made a place for himself in that immortal company who are renowned for naught but for being kind.

HUNDREDS OF GRAVE YARDS

Under the caption "More Than 700 Graveyards" the Berliner Vorwaertz recently published an article referring to the battlefields of Galicia and to the efforts being made by the Austrian authorities to bring some sort of order into the chaotic conditions prevailing in the military burying grounds scattered over the province.

The writer estimates that between the town of Gorlice and the heights of Tarnovo no fewer than 419 graveyards have been cleared of their unsightly surroundings, and says that wherever possible natural beauties in the landscape have been utilized to lend dignity to the enormous cemeteries.

"All along the Dunajec graveyards are thickly strewn over the entire countryside. Russians, Austrians, Germans, Hungarians to the number of 40,000 are buried in the cared-for graveyards, a number which does not include those buried in masses in one grave. In West Galicia alone about 600 graveyards exist and in other parts more than 100. From the Dunajec eastward the multitudinous graves of the Russians are seen strentching away into the eastern plains, an awful record of the death grapple of last year.

There are no present indications of an early ending of this terrible slaughter of the human race. While hundreds of grave yards are in Galicia, equally as many more are on the western front, although there has been no time to beautify them. Cities of the dead will be multiplied greatly should this fearful struggle continue another year.

ALLIES WORK TOGETHER

Montgomery Schuyler, who has been much in Russia since the outbreak of the war says in the New York Times.

"General Joffre is directing the Russian drive. Brusiloff is acting on orders from the French Commander-in-Chief."

The Baltimore Sun in commenting upon this statement says it is this feature of the present movement of the allied forces that distinguishes it from all which have preceded it For the first time since the war began the armies of France, England. Russia, Belgium and Italy are acting as a unit. For the first time the central position of Germany and Austria promises to be of little use to them. For the first time there is comparatively little to be gained by the shifting of troops from one front to another. Brusiloff is acting under Joffre's orders. So is Haig. Kitchener, when he met his death, was doubtless en route to Russia on some synchronizing errand. Out of many has been made one. Germany has withstood the onslaughts of her separate foes. Can she withstand their united assault?

She has done so marvelously heretofore that it would be a reckless prophet who would dare say, even now that she cannot.

HYMNS SET TO RAGTIME MUSIC.

Discussing "Church and Sunday School Music" at the Baptist encampment near Norfolk Sunday, Dr. Hubert Poteat, of Wake Forest College, N. C., condemned Baptist hymnals as being to full of music of a "trashy and ragtime" nature. He declared that such hymns should be eliminated, and the music made more dignified and beautiful.

We have waited for years for somebody to say this, as we have always thought it was a mistake to conscript concert hall tunes or those of played out negro minstrelsy and use them as church music.

DEATH OF MRS. KNOX

(Communicated)

When Lucy Daingerfield Knox, widow of the late Captain Robert F. Knox, and daughter of the late David Boyd Smith and Harriet Daingerfield, died, she left a place in this community that cannot be filled. A woman of more than usual interest, whose mind was alert, always on the world wide interests of today, but stored as well with all historical knowledge—she knew the past well but lived all her life in the up to date present. Her exceptionally fine judgment, her clear vision, and her positive stand for what she thought the right was a great power in the church and community.

She was a gentle retiring nature, full of quiet humor and a wonderful comprehension. Her store of knowledge was great and she gave it simple and entirely unaware that it was unusual. She was a faithful wife and a constant friend.

Her loss to St. Paul's Church can never be told. She had worked for the church since early girlhood, teaching, when very young, in the parish school of the church for several days of each week, besides her Sunday duties. She was active in missionary work and in all guild work, serving up to her last illness as secretary of the Parish Guild, having held that position for many years. A remarkable Bible student, her help was sought by many. As she never said or thought evil of anyone, so we will always think of her when we hear that beautiful beatitude: "Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God!"

A FRIEND.

"Too late" might be marked on the court order which Judge Murphy handed to Justice Ott, yesterday in Deroit, Mich., directing Mrs. Lapanski to allow her husband, Paul, an interview with his two sons. Before the father could be notified by the justice court he had sent a bullet through his brain. Loneliness and grief over the separation from his two boys caused him to end his life.

"All danger of war with the United States has passed," is the substance of a telegram sent by Gen. Obregon to Gen. Calles who thus informed heads of American mining companies operating in Sonora yesterday. Carranza's war minister ordered Gen. Calles to expedite the return of Americans operating mines or ranches in his territory and to co-operate with them and give them guarantees of safety.

Premier Asquith announced in the British house of commons yesterday that the bill for the establishment of a government for Ireland as agreed to by the bulk of the Nationalists and Unionists, will be submitted to Parliament next week. He urged the house to lend its support to the bill, emphasizing that the present opportunity may never recur. "The dominating factor," said he, "which made us all willing to become parties or sponsors to this measure, is the war."

Its name will "Z-Deutchland." Upon its trial trip will depend the formation of the trans-Atlantic service. Henry Ford, one of the reception committee to greet President Wilson, yesterday awaited his coming at the depot at Detroit with great interest. In answer to a question he said. "I would not consent to run for President against Woodrow Wilson. he is on to the interests and is not afraid to talk back to them. And he has maintained peace." The President made a hasty trip to the Ford plant yesterday afternoon. On the front of the building hung a great banner on which were the words: "Our hats off to the President who has kkept us out of war."

ROOSEVELT DENOUNCED.

Germans Allege He is a Most Dangerous Menace to Peace.

Chicago, July 11. — Theodore Roosevelt was called a "most dangerous menace to the peace and integrity of the United States," and the epithet "Byzzantine legothete" was hurled back into his teeth in the course of a verbal blast at the national council of the Teutonic Sons of America, in executive session here yesterday.

The attack took the form of a letter addressed to the Colonel, through G. F. Hummel, national president of the organiation.

The epistle set forth that at its meeting the national council had resolved that Col. Roosevelt's reported outbursts against what he calls "professional German-Americanism," are if true, "conceived of hypocrisy and born of insincerity and fraud". The letter continues: "Your voice brazenly raised against an honorable and always highly appreciated element of American citizenship vies in vehemence and shallowest unreason with the fanaticism of him whom you are pleased to call a Bizantine logothete.

"You have provoked a war in America which, but for the loyalty, the decency the intelligence of our portion of the American citizenry, would even now be raging wth a fury and violence compared to which the civil war would assume the aspect of a street brawl.

"It was your vociferous pronunciamento against hyphenated Americanism at time when hpyhenism was not known, excepting to Oxfordian graduates and Carnegian scholars, that fanned the flame of this race war in the United States, and that keeps it alive today.

"But, thank God, we have the situation quite well in hand and we feel reasonably certain of our power to prevent thecatacyism which you and yours would pull down the gage of mortal strife.

"It is your political life against the honor of the German-Americans. And with loyal American hearts we come out to give battle to his Britanic Majesty's 'American legions' under your leadership and we hereby unequivocally denounce you and declare you not only a 'Byzantine logothete,' but a most dangerous menace to the peace and the integrity of the United States of America.

"In the cause of American independence forever, we are, "The Teutonic Sons of America."

Grace Cantner, 6 years old, daughter of Albert Cantner, is dying at the Washington county Md. hospital at Hagerstown, from injuries received yesterday in a mangle at the Antietam Paper Mills Security, where her father is employed. The child was playing near the mangle and was warned by her father of the danger Later Cantner heard screams above the rattle of machinery and saw his daughter being drawn into the knives of the machine, which were slowly shredding her body into bits. Her left arm was drawn into the knives up to the shoulder. When released her arm was hanging by a shred. Her abdomen was ripped open and the right side of her body and legs were lacerated.

$595 "MAXWELL"

THE BIG MOTOR CAR VALUE OF THE 1917 Season
Increased Production--Economical Merchandising and Standardized Manufacturing Permit Remarkably Low Price.

The prices of Maxwell Cars are again reduced—$595 for the Touring Car and $580 for the Roadster are the new prices—effective July 1st, 1916. Only the price is changed—not the car.

We emphasize this point because you might well suppose that a lowered price would necessitate some changes in the Maxwellg car—somethin taken from its complete equipment—or some lowering of Maxwell standards of quality.
